- C. The name, address and telephone number of an owner and an agent shall be reported to the department in writing on documents provided upon registering the rental units.
- D. It shall be the duty of the owner or agent to permit inspection of the premises and any rental unit therein by the inspector at reasonable times as may be necessary to ensure health, safety, and welfare of the tenants, to respond after disruptive conduct, maintain peace and order, compliance with enacted codes and ordinances, and health regulations.

- E. The owner has the duty to maintain the premises in good repair, clean and sanitary condition, and to maintain the premises in compliance with current property maintenance codes, building codes and zoning regulations of the Borough. The owner may delegate implementation of these responsibilities to the agent.

- F. It shall be the duty of the owner and agent to discourage and prevent as may be possible disruptive conduct, which may result in damage to the premises, breach the peace, and any disturbance to the community. In addition, it shall be the duty of the owner and agent to process a criminal and financial background check to discourage and prevent any disturbance to the community.

- G. It shall be the duty of the owner of agent, upon the receipt of disruptive conduct reports from the Borough, to contact the occupants, and inform them of their responsibility for their conduct, and that under this ordinance, occupancy of the rental unit can be closed as a result of the occupant's disruptive conduct.
- H. It shall be the duty of the owner/agent, or tenant to produce a lease upon request from the department whenever it is deemed necessary by the department to enforce the Borough ordinance and other codes.

Each reopening without having cured the violating event shall be considered a new violation subject to a new closure order.

RENTAL UNIT BOARD OF APPEALS

1. Any person contesting the closure of a rental property or until under this ordinance relating to housing, building, health or disruptive conduct, may appeal such order within (14) fourteen working days from the date thereof to Rental Unit Board of Appeals. Said appeal must be in writing setting forth the specific errors or reasons for appeal, and the relief requested. Said appeal shall be deposited in the Office of the Borough, who shall forward it to the Rental Unit Board of Appeals, and Code Department.
2. The Rental Unit Board of Appeals shall consist of three (3) regular members, and two (2) alternate members, who may substitute in the event of the absence of one or more regular members. No alternate may substitute for the chairperson of the board.

3. The regular and alternate members shall be appointed by borough council. The regular members of the board shall consist of one councilperson, one citizen resident, and one landlord. The alternate may consist of one citizen resident and one landlord. All regular and alternate members of the board shall serve a two (2) year term and be subject to reappointment at the pleasure of council.

4. The Rental Unit Board of Appeals shall have the following powers:
 - a. To adopt and administer the rules of procedure regarding its organization, officers, times, and places of meetings, conduct of meetings and other legal procedures relating to the hearing and determination of appeals and other matters within (10) ten working days following the appeal hearing. The decision shall be filed in the Office of Borough and sent to the owner or agent by certified mail.

 - b. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by the department in the enforcement of provision of this ordinance.

 - c. To modify any notice of violation or order and to authorize a variance from the terms of this Ordinance when due to special circumstances, undue hardship would result from literal enforcement, and where such variance continues to substantially comply with the spirit and intent of this Ordinance.

 - d. To grant a reasonable extension of time for the compliance where there is a demonstrated case of hardship and evidence of bona-fide intent to comply within a reasonable time period.

- e. In exercising the above-mentioned powers, the Board shall act with reasonable promptness in scheduling appeal hearings and seek to prevent unwarranted delays prejudicial to the party involved and to the public interest.

- f. The Board may reverse or affirm in whole or part, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination as justice would require. In its determination, the board shall be bound by this Ordinance and shall not ignore the clear provisions and intent of this Ordinance.

- g. Any person, including the department, aggrieved by any decision of the Board, may appeal to the Court of Common Pleas of Northumberland County. Such appeal shall be made by filing a legal petition which shall set forth the factual and legal basis upon which the decision of the Board is alleged to be illegal, in whole or in part. Such petition shall be presented to the Court of Common Pleas and a notice thereof must be given to the Borough or Department pursuant to the applicable rule of procedure.
- h. If the appeal is of a third Disruptive Conduct Report and the decision of the Department has been affirmed, and no appeal is pending, within ten (10) working days after the expiration of the time for compliance as required by the decision of the Board, the Department shall reinspect to determine whether the occupant has voluntarily moved from the premises or the owner has initiated eviction proceedings.
- i. If, when so required by a third Disruptive Conduct Report, the occupant has not voluntarily moved or the owner has not initiated eviction proceedings, the Department shall revoke the Certificate of Occupancy.
- j. The Disruptive Conduct Report and all records of all proceedings and the final disposition of the matter outlined in the appeal shall be public and available for inspection; provided, however, that the Department may prescribe reasonable regulation regarding the time and manner of inspection.
- k. Conditions to be updated as per UCC Codes.

SECTION 7. NOTICES

- A. A notice shall be sent to the owner or agent, if applicable, by regular first-class mail at the address stated for service on the most recent registration application for the premises in question. If no such registration exists, notice shall be sent to the address of the record owner of the promises as listed in the deed and/ or the address listed in the Tax Assessment Office. If such notice is not returned by the United States Postal Authorities within (7) seven days of its deposit in the US Mail, then it shall be deemed to have been delivered to and notice received by the addressee on the (7th) seventh day following its deposit in the United States Mail.
- B. In the event that the notice is returned by the postal authorities, for whatever reason, then the notice may be affected by posting of the notice in a conspicuous place on the premises.
- C. For the purpose of this ordinance, any notice required hereunder to be given to the agent shall be deemed as notice given to the owner.
- D. A claim lack of knowledge by the owner, or agent, if applicable, of any violation hereunder cited shall be no defense to the closure of a rental unit, as long as all notices prerequisite to such proceedings has been given in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance.
